The Poker Tournament will be broken up into three tiers, with the third tier being the final table. Players must enter into one of the satellites within Tier I play. If a player is knocked out during Tier I play, he/she may buy-in during another Tier I satellite, if possible. The number of players moving on to Tier II play will be determined by the number of players within each satellite.

Schedule:

Tier I Satellites:

Friday: 11:00am-1:00pm; 2:00pm-4:00pm      Saturday: 10:00am-12:00pm

Semi Final:

Saturday: 2:00pm-5:00pm

Final Table:

Sunday: 12:00pm-3:00pm

Rules

- Seating arrangement will be determined in a random order
  - Minimum bet or raise is the big blind.
  - If a misdeal occurs during the dealing of the whole cards, then the cards must be redealt.
  - If a misdeal occurs when dealing the community cards, then the hand continues but the cards must be in the correct order. If the dealer forgets to burn a card, the correct card should be burned so the cards remain in the intended order.
1. Small and big blinds are placed to the left of the dealer respectively.
  2. Each player is dealt two cards face down.
  3. A round of betting occurs.
  4. One card is placed face down "burned," and three cards are placed face up in the middle of the table. This is called the "flop." Your two down cards with the three cards on the Flop make up your 5 card hand.
  5. Another round of betting occurs.
  6. Another card is placed face down "burned," and a fourth card is dealt face up. This is called the "Turn." Now you have six cards with which to make your hand.
  7. A round of betting occurs.
  8. Another card is placed face down "burned," and a fifth card is dealt face up. This is called the "River." You use the five community cards along with your two private cards to make your best five card hand.
  9. A final round of betting occurs.
  10. After abetting has been finalized the player with the best five card poker hand rakes the pot.
